

Pressrelease FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Dortmund, June 12th 2018

World Cup 2018 kick-off — powered by Windows Azure!
The 2018 Football World Cup begins Thursday, June 14 when host Russia welcomes the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia on the day's only match. It's the return of the most popular soccer tournament in the world, and it's expected to be a wild, competitive championship with teams like Spain and Brazil looking much improved compared to 2014.

There aren't many contenders, usually just a handful. There's defending champion Germany, of course, constant underachievers Belgium, Brazil aiming to return to glory, Spain, France and Argentina. You can bet the champ will come out of that group. Germany still has a lot of quality. Now trying to become the first time since Brazil in 1962 to defend their World Cup title looks tricky for the Germans.
